

ABOUT SCENIC CAMBRIA

The quaint town of Cambria is situated among the pine trees along California's Central Coast. An artist's town with charming specialty shops, galleries and restaurants featuring a local flare, Cambria offers travelers a relaxing environment and encourages outdoor exploration. From walking the pristine boardwalk at Moonstone Beach to exploring the tide pools, hiking local trails, kayaking California's scenic coast, or horseback riding along acres of pristine paths, Cambria offers visitors a bounty of adventure. The town is centrally located between San Francisco and Los Angeles, along the iconic Pacific Coast Highway (HWY1), the gateway to Big Sur.

CAMBRIA FACTS

Via Cambria Chamber of Commerce

- Location: 240 miles south of San Francisco and 240 miles north of Los Angeles on U.S. Highway 1
- Population: 6,500
- Elevation: Sea level to 200 feet
- Area of town: Three square miles
- County: San Luis Obispo
- Climate: Mild; no smog, clear blue skies, some seasonal fog, ocean breezes
- Average temperature: 50-70° F year-round
- Recreation: Hiking trails, bicycling, surfing, tide pools, rock hunting, fishing, kite and wind surfing, horseback riding, kayaking, lawn bowling, tennis, and more.
- Facilities: Picnic areas, public swimming pool, skate park, private golf and more.
- Arts & Culture: Various independent art studios and galleries, local live theater, and festivals offered throughout the year. Annual Cambria Art & Wine Festival held at the end of January.
- Activities & Attractions: Hearst Castle, elephant seal viewing, Piedras Blancas Lighthouse, Moonstone Beach, San Simeon Cove, Fiscalini Ranch Preserve, wine and beer tasting, whale watching, and more.

